

Richard Wyman Regrets Pain, Distress and Offense to the Brethren

On May 10, 2005, Richard Wyman met with members of the Brethren in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In that meeting, he agreed to stop publishing materials on the Brethren. This includes all publications attacking or derogatory of the Brethren.

Mr. Wyman has acknowledged that several statements posted on this web site were capable of being construed as defamatory. He also acknowledges that the statements may have caused pain, distress and offense to the Brethren. For this, he expresses regret.

These acknowledgments were included in a settlement agreement that was entered in U.S. District Court. This resolves all outstanding concerns regarding the former activities. The Brethren are grateful that Mr. Wyman has agreed to refrain from publishing anything further on the subject of the Brethren.

More information is available at The Brethren website:

<http://www.theexclusivebrethren.com>