Dear Mr McAlpin

Ross & Shirley Hales

We advise that we act for Mr & Mrs Ross Hales and have been provided with a copy of an article published on the Peebs.net website entitled "Some of my Story by Warren McAlpin". We have also been provided with a copy of a letter dated 16 February 2005 forwarded to you by Mr & Mrs Hales which you have also caused to be published on the same website without our clients' permission. The publication of our client's letter was without their consent.

We note that in publishing our client's letter, there is no denial by you of the factual material included in the letter from Mr & Mrs Hales.

Our clients have written to you out of their Christian concern that incorrect statements which had been made in your article were corrected. Our clients assume that by publishing their letter, this is your way of formally acknowledging that the statements attributed to Mrs Shirley Hales were incorrect.

It would appear that you are not prepared to provide a written apology to Mrs S Hales as requested by our clients nor to take appropriate action to have your incorrect statements removed from the website.

We request your advice as to who we may contact with respect to the website so that we may request that the incorrect statements are acknowledged to be incorrect on the website and then subsequently are removed and no longer published if you are not prepared to take this action yourself.

If you fail to comply with our clients' reasonable requests, then our clients reserve their right to take such further action as may be necessary in the future to protect their good character and reputation as to the truth in this matter.

Yours faithfully
HUNT & HUNT
