March 2003

Beloved Brother/Sister,

The liberal spirit shown by the beloved brethren in recent months has resulted in a very significant improvement regarding the finances available for our relocation project. We wish once again to warmly thank all for their generosity, which is very much valued.

Some of the new equipment has now been purchased, demolition of the existing buildings on the site is completed, and our current premises are up for sale. We are working on finalising the design of the new building, and have enough funds in hand to commence construction work.

However, we do still have a current shortfall of approximately £1.9 million which is now urgently required. Whereas continuing assembly giving and dedicated collections are of considerable assistance, it is thought that private giving is most likely to provide the substantial sum still required.

For those who feel able to give, an envelope (and Gift Aid Form for UK brethren) is enclosed for convenience, and we can assure the brethren that every gift of whatever size will be appreciated.

Your brothers in Him,

Ross Anderson
